Chairman's Round Up

As we move into Spring, and hopefully some nicer weather we will be able to enjoy the village as gardens come to life.

The village "Green Group" are meeting regularly and we shall start to see the benefits of their labours over the next few months.

Activities and events at the Village Hall are becoming popular, so keep an eye on the Village News for updates etc.

As featured in this edition we are coming round to the Parish Council elections. We have vacancies on the Parish Council and it would be good to have these vacancies filled.

If anyone is interested in joining the Parish Council please feel free to contact the Parish Clerk or myself (contact details are in the Village News) and we will be more than happy to give more details about how the Council works, and how people can contribute to it.

POLICE REPORT

Wolds Ward Healing Update MARCH 2023

Crime

Crime

There were forty seven reported crimes across the Wolds Ward during February. Three offences were recorded for Healing.

These were an assault, harassment and theft of a bag which was later found at a bus stop.

Into March, there have been eight reports to date, one for Healing. This was a minor public order offence over a neighbour dispute.

There have been no reports of ASB.

Your local Neighbourhood Policing Team appreciates the importance of being in the right place, at the right time, for the right reasons to reassure the public, improve public confidence and reduce crime and anti-social behaviour in the area in which we all live and work.

We encourage all residents to call and report any issues where they live so that we can deal with any issues and step up our patrols in the area. The number to call for non-emergency issues is 101

Parish Council Matters

The new Model Code of Conduct had been received from NELC and this would be considered for adoption by Healing PC. This is the same code which is in use by the local authority at NELC.

Elections 2023

There are changes to elections this year with voting ID being required by everyone who votes in person at a Polling Station. Please make sure you have the required photographic ID or you will not be able to vote.

Parish Council elections are also upcoming on 4th May 2023 and anyone wishing to put themselves forward for election will be required to complete the form from NELC and submit by early April in order to qualify for inclusion in the election process. All candidates must show eligibility to stand for election.

Village Hall

A larger hatch between the kitchen and the main hall had been agreed and this would now be progressed, along with looking at a hearing loop for the Hall. Boarding had now been installed in the toilet areas. A larger bookcase has also been obtained for our growing library facility. This is proving very popular. You don't need to register that you've borrowed a book, please just take what you would like but as a courtesy to others, do please bring them back!

View from the Pew

If you look at the seasonal aisle in the supermarkets at this time of year, you would be forgiven for thinking that Easter is about primroses, bunnies and chocolate eggs. And for many people it is. Should you manage to track down a “religious” card (And congratulations if you do!), it might feature an image of a church adorned with spring flowers, or an empty cross airbrushed and radiant. What is absent from such cute or floral scenes is the astounding truth that Easter is about someone who was categorically dead for three days who was raised to life. Even after two thousand years of time and huge advances in medical science, such an occurrence would still be a shock today – ask any undertaker!

This Easter story is a reminder that God’s activities and intervention in the world are not always as gentle, calm or predictable as the dawning of a new day. For the women who first discovered that Jesus’s tomb was empty, the actions of God were baffling and bewildering as much as they were incredible and inspiring.

This year, I encourage you (and I encourage myself) to glimpse beyond the fluffy Easter narrative and consider the emotional rollercoaster that the women and the disciples experienced. In a world where people frequently “Where is God in all this?” may you discover ( as Mary discovered at the empty tomb) that God is right there beside you in the form of the risen Christ, encouraging you with the words “Do not be afraid”.

May God strengthen and uphold you this Easter.
Andrew Gadd

Healing Green Agenda Group

Seeing the Wild Isles documentaries narrated by Sir David Attenborough is another brilliant reminder of how essential it is to do all we can to help look after our environment. Even though we don't have any cute little puffins hopping around in Healing we do have a lot of local flora and fauna that needs our protection and encouragement to prosper. - be it as humble as wild flowers and little creepy crawlies. But just doing that means that we have to tread a lot more lightly on our common surroundings and live in a more sustainable manner.

To see what our new group has in mind, how things are progressing and what you can do to help please visit our website healinggreenagenda.com and click on the Projects section. Not every page has content as yet but also have a look at Flora & Fauna/Wild Flowers and Sustainability/Rainwater Harvesting to see the way things are going. Lots more needs to be done and all your contributions are welcome.

Meetings may get more frequent and outside as things start to warm up so keep checking on the website and the Village Notice Board or email.

Keep Going Green.

Dave Spreadborough

HEALING AND DISTRICT GARDEN CLUB

At our February meeting members enjoyed hearing our speaker Jon Sass MBE tell us of his lifelong interest in windmills and their restoration, many of which were in Lincolnshire and were easily identified by their photographs.

Our April 4th meeting sees us welcome Jayne Hickling-The Allotment Cook. Jayne is an inspiring speaker who was very well received at Edible Grimsby Feast of Ideas and is a regular gardening contributor of BBC Radio Lincolnshire. As the Lead co-ordinator for Horncastle in Bloom she is bringing the Community together through horticulture. Jayne is a keen advocate of Communities sharing their surplus produce with local food hubs.

All our meetings are open to guests at the cost of £3.00, whilst membership is just £5.00 per annum.

The Club has organised a day visit to the RHS Bridgewater, the newest RHS garden in the North on 18th June 2023. The cost to members is £20.00 which is just the cost of the coach.
