HEALING PARISH COUNCIL NOTES FOR AUGUST 2021

The Council meeting for August 2021 was held at the Village Hall as usual.

Changes in Council membership and Chairmanship

There is a new Council Chairman, Cllr. Paul Fieldgate, who takes over from outgoing Chairman, Ian Smith. The Council members were sorry to see Mr. Smith step down from the Council and have sent good wishes and thanks for all the work he undertook whilst in office.

There are casual vacancies at the moment on the Council and anyone interested should contact either the Clerk or an existing member in the first instance, or come along to a Council meeting and observe without any obligation.

Highways and Footpaths

NELC has commenced the pre-planned roadworks within the Village, on Great Coates Road, with all residents affected along the road kept up to date with closures etc.

The Parish Council has registered to take part in the Platinum Jubilee Event in 2022 and will be lighting a beacon along with others nationally and also holding an event to commemorate this important occasion.

The Council has been running its holiday clubs all throughout August and these have been popular as usual.

Next year will see an expansion of these clubs due to the new hall facility which will be finished and able to be used for refreshments etc. to support any holiday activities put on at the park.

POLICE REPORT

Wolds Ward Healing Update July 2021

At the time of going to print, no Police Report had been received for the Parish Council meeting in July.

Your local Neighbourhood Policing Team appreciates the importance of being in the right place, at the right time, for the right reasons to reassure the public, improve public confidence and reduce crime and anti-social behaviour in the area in which we all live and work.

We encourage all residents to call and report any issues where they live so that we can deal with any issues and also step up our patrols in the area. The number to call for non-emergency issues is 101

Village Hall project

The building of the new hall has now started and works are going smoothly so far. It is anticipated that, weather depending, we will be finished with the project by the end of October and hopefully into our new facility by mid-November. Any resident with any questions on the build, do please get in touch with the Council.

Heating your home

Keep warm and safe

When heating your home be sure you keep your heat source away from curtains and furniture.

Portable electric heaters...

- Never use them to dry clothes.
- Try to secure heaters up against a wall to stop them falling over.
- Always unplug the heater when not in use.

Open fires...

- Protect your home by using a fire guard to prevent hot ash and sparks falling from the fire.
- For wood and coal burning fires or stoves, the chimney should be swept according to the type of fuel used. To find a chimney sweep in your local area, please visit: www.nacs.org.uk

Gas fires...

- They should be checked regularly at least once a year and serviced by a 'Gas Safe' registered engineer.

Carbon Monoxide Detector... Early Detection Saves Lives

- We recommend you install a carbon monoxide alarm when using open fires or solid fuel burners.

In the event of a fire, use your escape plan – GET OUT, STAY OUT AND CALL 999

HEALING GARDEN CLUB

The Committee, mindful of their duty to keep our members and friends safe, have, sadly, made the decision, because of the large numbers of Covid cases locally to cancel the Late Summer Show planned for September.

However we would like to be able to restart in January with a social evening with a fish and chip supper, always a popular meeting with members.

Please watch the Healing News for further details, however we are planning to contact all our present members by mail shortly.

Melanie Dickerson.

VIEW FROM THE PEW

"I never put off till tomorrow what I can possibly do the day after." (Oscar Wilde)

I know the feeling. How about you?

You will have heard of St. Augustine of Hippo, no doubt, even if you are a little hazy as to where 'Hippo' is. Augustine was a fourth century theologian and philosopher who wrote the classic work 'Confessions', which outlines his pleasure-seeking youth and his conversion to Christianity. The autobiographical book captures the turmoil in his heart as he searches for meaning in his busy life. Amidst the activities that filled his days, he reached a point where he felt:

"I must set aside time to attend to the saving of my soul."

Isn't that a good line? And, like the Bible, there are different translations of Augustine's Confessions, each giving a slightly different interpretation or emphasis. So, that same quote from another version says:

"Let me set a schedule for my days and set apart certain hours for the health of the soul."

...and a third:

"I must plan my time and arrange my day for the good of my soul."

You get the point. And, to be clear, the point is not that the saving of my soul is down to me and my actions. Nonetheless, there is definitely a place for wilful resolve, for clearing the brush and bracken, and for some spiritual scheduling for the good of the soul. Jesus encourages us thus; "Seek and you shall find." I like the finding, but I can be impatient with the seeking, putting it off for another day, a more suitable occasion that never materialises.

Back to Augustine who said this:

I felt I was still in the grip of my past. I kept sending up to you my miserable cries, 'How long! How long must I go on saying "Tomorrow, tomorrow"? Why not now, in this very moment?' (8:12)

I encourage you to set aside some time to attend to the saving of your soul, so you can do that without clockwatching or feeling that it is time to do something else. Plan it in and kick off your shoes, for you will discover that you are on holy ground.

Every blessing,
Andrew Gadd

"Stand up and begin this moment; say to yourself, 'Now is the time for action, now is the right time to mend my ways.'" (Thomas à Kempis (1380-1471)
